Cover pool monitor

In accordance with the provisions of RDL 24/2021, the covered bond issuer must appoint a control entity for cover pool programmes, which will act in the interest of the investors and whose function will be to permanently monitor the cover pool.

The Board of Directors of Deutsche Bank S.A.E.U. held on March 31, 2022, agreed to appoint Intermoney Agency Services,S.A. as the external control entity for cover pool programmes for covered bonds for a period of three years. Such appointment was authorized by the Bank of Spain with effects from July 8, 2022. The Board of Directors of Deutsche Bank S.A.E.U. held on March 28, 2025, agreed to renew the appointment of Intermoney Agency Services,S.A. as the external control entity for cover pool programmes for covered bonds for an additional period of three years (that is, until July 8, 2028).

Requirements for extendable maturities

The article 19.2 of RDL 24/2021 requires a description of the circumstances that may derive to the extension of maturity for covered bonds. As of the date of this report, and notwithstanding potential circumstances that may arise, Deutsche Bank, S.A.E.U. highlights the following:

- The existence of a certain risk of non-payment of the covered bonds due to liquidity problems in the cover pool or in the issuing entity. This is recognized when the liquidity buffer requirement of the cover pool, established in article 11 of this Law, is not complied with or when the Bank of Spain adopts any of the measures provided for in article 68 of Law 10/2014 relating to the liquidity of the entity, with the exception of that provided for in letter j) of section.
- Process of insolvency or resolution of the issuing entity.
- The declaration of infeasibility in accordance with article 8 of Law 11/2015, of June 18, on the recovery and resolution of credit institutions and investment services companies of the issuer.
- The existence of serious disturbances that affect the national financial markets, recognized by the Autoridad Macropudencial Consejo de Estabilidad Financiera (AMCESFI) through a communication in the form of an alert or recommendation, which is not confidential.
